

Theatre Deli
Cafe Supervisor

Job Description

Theatre Deli at Broadgate is a placemaking project that will deliver a unique creative and artistic space in the City of London. Consisting of Deli Studios, a vibrant arts cafe, and immersive performance space it aims to deliver a different kind of creative experience to city workers and residents.

Theatre Delicatessen is looking for an experienced Cafe Supervisor who is as passionate about coffee and high quality food as they are about creating a creative, dynamic space in the heart of the City.

We are looking for enthusiastic people with a passion for coffee, food and the arts. You will be part of our creative, dynamic space in the heart of the City. Our aim is to make this cafe the heart of our immersive pop-up intervention, that over two years looks to subvert our new City surroundings to create a wonderland of arts, performance and events. Its income directly raises funds for our artistic activity.

This is an interesting & varied role requiring a wide range of skills in order to deliver a high level of customer service. You will need to demonstrate a welcoming & positive attitude in everything you do.
